

Practice 1*Comprehension Open-ended

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

Millie's father has a very interesting job. Mr Lee works as a trainer in his company. His job is to train new employees in his company to carry out their duties. Most of the time, he trains new workers for his company in Singapore. However, there are times when he has to conduct his training overseas. He will be away for a month sometimes. Millie misses her father when he is away.

Mr Lee writes letters to Millie while he is overseas. Millie enjoys receiving the letters. Her father will describe the places that he has visited. He will tell Millie about the people he meets and the new words that he has learnt from the locals in the country that he is in.

Millie keeps the letters that her father sends her. She likes to re-read them and imagine the places that her father describes. She hopes that she can visit these places one day. Millie cuts out the stamps from the envelopes and keeps them in an album. They are beautiful and interesting. She has quite a large collection now. Millie enjoys collecting the stamps. Stamp collecting is now Millie's hobby.
