

Transitive or Intransitive?

For each of the following sentences decide if the underlined verb is TRANSITIVE or INTRANSITIVE. Then write the kind of verb it is.

For example:

My teacher is attending a conference today.

This verb is: Transitive

1. We brought our binders to class every day.
This verb is: _____
2. Jansi slept until 8 a. m. on Saturday.
This verb is: _____
3. The neighbour's car was parked in front of my driveway and I could not get out. (How rude!)
This verb is: _____
4. Shamiram bought 5 packages of baklava because they were on sale!
This verb is: _____
5. Can you please add a sticky note to our jamboard?
This verb is: _____
6. The bus-driver drove right past my stop
This verb is: _____
7. The robins flew away to warmer areas. It's too cold in London.
This verb is: _____
8. It is annoying when things don't work in our D2L classroom.
This verb is: _____
9. My daughter is buying a new kind of garlic this afternoon.
This verb is: _____
10. In Colombia, many families make bunuelos and empanadas at Christmas time.
This verb is: _____

