

FILL IN THE GAPS WITH THE PROPER GRAMMATICAL FORM

6

John <input type="text"/> at the window of the hotel room.	STAND
He <input type="text"/> absentmindedly at the street when,	LOOK
suddenly, he <input type="text"/> a horrible cry.	HEAR
Everyone in the street <input type="text"/> —	STOP
people <input type="text"/> where	WONDER
the cry <input type="text"/> from.	COME
John <input type="text"/> at the opposite house.	GLANCE
He <input type="text"/> the house for some weeks	WATCH
and he <input type="text"/> sure that	BE something suspicious <input type="text"/> on there,	GO
but he <input type="text"/> anything obvious enough to report it.	NEVER/NOTICE
This time he <input type="text"/>	THINK
he <input type="text"/> report something	CAN
that <input type="text"/> his superiors.	PLEASE
Just after the cry he <input type="text"/> a man in the window just opposite his one	SEE
the man <input type="text"/> the curtains hurriedly.	DRAW
John <input type="text"/> to investigate —	DECIDE
he <input type="text"/>	KNOW
he <input type="text"/> something.	FIND