

Basic Cleanliness

1. Which foot should you use for the actions below? Match the boxes by drawing lines between them.

Enter the toilet

Right foot

Exit the toilet

Left foot

2. Tick the correct sentences and put a cross next to the wrong sentences.

1. We should not go to the toilet barefooted because the floor could be dirty.
2. Girls should sit down to use the toilet while boys can stand up.
3. Both girls and boys should sit down to use the toilet.
4. Clean the toilet seat before sitting down.

3. Draw arrows between the boxes to make complete sentences.

Taharah means

half of faith

Keeping clean is

wash some parts of the body using water

Ghusl means

to clean entire body by taking a bath

Wudu means

keeping clean

Basic Cleanliness

Word bank: water mouth nose body wash

1. Fill in the missing words to complete the sentence.

a. We should wash our entire  when performing ghusl. We must take special care to clean our  and .

b. Istinja means to  ourselves to become clean.

c. It is important to use  after you go to the toilet to wash the unclean area.

2. The following shows what Zaid did today. Circle all the bad things he did and underline all the good things he did.

It was Saturday, and Zaid went out in the morning to play football. He played for over an hour and had sweat all over him when he came back home.

- Zaid was very tired, so he took his dirty socks off and threw it in the corner of the passage.
- He went straight to the living room and started to watch TV.
- Zaid's mum came in the living room; "Zaid you smell awful! Go and have a shower now!" She said. Zaid went into the bathroom.
- He went in the bathroom with the left foot and recited the dua inside.
- He made sure he wore sandals.
- He sat down to urinate and then cleaned himself, first using tissue and then with water, using the right hand.
- He then had a shower.
- He washed his whole body but not his ears, mouth and nose.  