1. Watch the two extracts twice. Write the vocabulary next to the right pictures.

pilot a commercial jet

.....

.....

Vocab : gossip less / play the guitar / not make fun of his friends / take more pictures

2. Listen again. Match each person and their resolution:

A. "My New Year's resolution is to learn how to play guitar."

B. "Maybe your resolution should be to not make fun of your friends"

C. "Mine is to pilot a commercial jet."

D. "I'm going to be happy (...) Every day, I'm going to do one thing I have never done before. That, my friends, is my New Year's resolution."

E. "It's my New Year's resolution! (...) To take more pictures of all of us together. *I mean, I really think it's the best New Year's resolution because everyone can enjoy the pictures!"

F. "Hey Rach', maybe your resolution should be to – erm – gossip less."

*mine : la mienne, le mien français

*I mean (expression très courante à l'oral) : ce que je veux dire par là

*erm : l'équivalent de « hm » en

3. Récapitulons:

Pour écrire des résolutions et parler de ce qu'on a décidé de faire, on peut le dire de deux manières :

- « ... + verbe » (phrase A)
- « ... ! + verbe » (phrase D)

Pour exprimer ce que quelqu'un devrait faire selon nous (phrases B et F), on utilise + verbe.

- à la forme affirmative : «Maybe your resolution should be to gossip less ».
- à la forme negative: "Maybe your resolution should be to not make fun of your friends".
