Reading

6. Read the restaurant guide and choose A (The Rainforest Café), B (Inamo) or C (Sophie's Steakhouse)

Fun places to eat with friends

A The Rainforest Café

Set off for the tropical rainforest in this restaurant. Take some time to look around – you'll find plants and waterfalls and all kinds of wild animals like parrots, frogs and tigers! Don't forget to reserve a table for dinner when it gets very busy. There's something for everyone on the menu, from veggie burgers for vegetarians to the tasty Rainforest Burger for meat lovers. Ask your waiter for some advice. Open every day from midday to late. This restaurant has already given away over £17,500 to help wildlife projects.

B Inamo

Taste curry from Thailand, sushi from Japan or even lamb from Korea here. But the most amazing thing about Inamo is the interactive ordering system – your table becomes a computer screen. No need to call a waiter – you order your food and drink by touching the pictures. While you're waiting for your food, you can play computer games or explore the area around the restaurant using your table! When it's time to pay, just touch the 'pay' button. Open from 12 pm to late Thursday to Sunday and dinner only Monday to Wednesday. Remember to reserve your table online.

C Sophie's Steakhouse

And if you're looking for something more traditional, you could try the juicy steaks in Sophie's Steakhouse. They only use the freshest ingredients to make delicious dishes. There is also chicken and fish on the menu and how about tasting the salads? The friendly waiters will be happy to advise you when you order. Unfortunately, you can't reserve for lunch or dinner here. When it's time to pay, you will notice that £1 from every meal goes to a local children's hospital. Open all day, every day
