C. READING

VIII Complete the conversation below with the statements (A-F).

A. My great-grandparents started it, not my grandparents. Then my grandparents took over the business. All the artisans here are my aunts, uncles, and cousins.
B. In Viet Nam there are lots of craft villages like Bat Trang. Have you ever been to any others?
C. They can't because we have lots of products. They make some and other people make the rest.
D. Let's go outside and look round the village.
E. Yes. People come here to buy things for their house. Another attraction is they can make pottery themselves in workshops.
F. Right. My grandmother says it's about 700 years old.

Nick: There are so many pieces of pottery here, Phong. Do your grandparents make all of them?

Phong: (1) .....

Nick: Ah, yes. Well, as far as I know, Bat Trang is one of the most famous traditional craft villages of Ha Noi, right?

Phong: (2) .....

Mi: Wow! When did your grandparents set up this workshop?

Phong: (3) .....

Mi: I see. Your village is also a place of interest of Ha Noi, isn't it?

Phong: (4) .....

Nick: That must be a memorable experience.

Phong: (5) .....

Mi: I 've been to a conical hat making village in Hue!

Nick: Cool! This is my first one. Do you think that the various crafts remind people of a specific region?

X Read the passage about Chu Van An High School in Hanoi, and answer the questions about it.

Chu Van An High School is one of the oldest and most prestigious state schools in Viet Nam. Established in 1908 by the French, the school was located beside the West Lake, and was originally named after the location it was in. It is a very pleasant, spacious school with great views of the lake from the classroom windows.

In 1943, the school was moved to Ninh Binh, and was not moved back to Hanoi until 1945. In that year, the school was renamed Chu Van An, after a famous Vietnamese Confucianism teacher of the Tran Dynasty. Professor Nguyen Gia Tuong became the first Vietnamese principal of the school. Many famous people like ex- Prime Minister Pham Van Dong, Doctor Ton That Tung, and poet Xuan Dieu used to be the school's students.

Today the school is still located in the same area, and has maintained its prestige as well as its reputation as one of the top schools in Hanoi. It is very difficult to be admitted to the school. Every year, there are around three thousand applicants but only about five hundred are admitted. Those applicants have to take an entrance (examination conducted by the Department of Education and Training of Hanoi.
