Name: _____

Health & Family Life

Risks and Values: How Risky Is It? HIV? STI Facts

Match the words of SODA to its step. [1 point each]

	Stop and state the problem.
	Consider the options and consequences.
	Decide and choose the best solution.
	Act on your decision.

Write true or false next to each statement. [1 point each]

1. _____ Abstinence is the only 100% effective behavior for preventing HIV and pregnancy.
2. _____ HIV is spread through casual contact.
3. _____ Taking birth control pills can prevent HIV.
4. _____ The HIV virus cannot live outside the body.
5. _____ HIV affects your Immune System.
6. _____ Drinking bush medicine can cure AIDS.
7. _____ Touching you in ways that make you feel uncomfortable should be reported to someone who can help.
8. _____ Casual contact includes talking, hugging, holding hand, dry kissing and dancing.
9. _____ There is presently no cure for AIDS.
10. _____ There are no steps that people can take to prevent STD's.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Choose the appropriate sign for each behavior. (Use the drop down button to select your answer.) [1 point each]

1. Not having sexual intercourse (abstinence).
2. French kissing.
3. Shaking hands with a person who has AIDS.
4. Donating blood.
5. Tattooing with unsterile equipment.
6. Drinking alcohol.

LIVEWORKSHEETS