

WW4 Grammar 5.2

5.2 Zero, First and Second Conditionals

1 Match the two halves of the sentences.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 0 If the sky is clear, | you will be able to see for miles. |
| 1 You'll do well | I wouldn't be so stressed. |
| 2 Unless it rains | we'll go outside and look at the stars. |
| 3 I always speak to my mum | if I don't eat breakfast. |
| 4 If I had the chance, | unless I shout at him. |
| 5 I get very hungry | I would go into space. |
| 6 If we didn't have the test tomorrow, | if I have a problem. |
| 7 He won't listen to me | if you revise for the test tomorrow. |

2 Complete the dialogue with the correct conditional form of the verbs in brackets.

- A: What would you do if you won (win) a lot of money?
- B: I don't know. I think I ¹ _____ (give) most it to poor people and buy myself a telescope with the rest.
- A: Really? I ² _____ (not/do) that. I ³ _____ (travel) around the world and never work.
- A: That ⁴ _____ (be) boring. If I ⁵ _____ (not/work), I get bored very quickly.
- B: Yes, I know. You're always so busy.
- A: I like being busy. I find it very stressful if I ⁶ _____ (have) nothing to do.
- B: I'm quite the opposite. For example, if it rains, I ⁷ _____ (stay) in this afternoon and watch TV.
- A: Boring!
- B: No, it isn't. There's a good programme about space I want to watch.
- A: That sounds interesting. Okay. If you ⁸ _____ (watch) it, I'll stay with you and watch it too.
- B: Really?
