Complete subject and predicate

Every sentence must have a subject and a predicate. The subject tells what the sentence is about. The predicate tells something about the subject.

subject predicate Kate and Celia laughed and played on the swings.

Select the complete subject

- 1. The chocolate cake tasted very good.
- 2. The school bus went quickly over the road.
- 3. The gentle giant in the yellow hat climbed down the large tree.
- 4. We often watch cartoons on television.
- 5. The blue and white dress belonged to my aunt.

Select the complete Predicate

- 1. Garrett, Amy and Liza walked their dogs yesterday.
- 2. The historic building is now a museum.
- 3. Brandon and Jeff, who are both in my class, are twins.
- 4.1 like fruit salad with strawberries.
- 5. My sister's friend Charles, works at the mall.

