

NAME: _____ CLASS: _____ NO.: _____

Independence Day : Part I

Directions: Read the passage and answer the questions.

Independence Day

Independence Day In the United States is on July 4th. It celebrates the day when America became independent from Britain. People wear red, white, and blue, the colors of the American flag. There are parades in the morning and firework displays in the evening. American people have a barbecue or a picnic with their families.

1. Why American people celebrate Independence Day?

- A. To thank the god after harvesting.
- B. It's the resurrection of Jesus.
- C. America became independent from Britain.
- D. All of above.

2.Independence Day is on _____.

- A. Febuary 14 th B. July 4th

C. October 30th B. December 25th

3. People always wear _____, _____ and _____ color on Independence Day.

A. black, red, yellow

B. red, white, black

C. red, white, blue

B. blue, black, white

Independence Day : Part II

Directions: Fill the correct answer in the blank.

4. There are _____ in the morning and _____ in the evening.

firework display

parades

5. American people have a _____ or a _____ with their families.

barbecue

picnic

6. Americans think July 4th is _____.

important

unimportant

Part III

Directions: Read the passage and answer the questions.

Hamburger with French fries and ketchup is American typical meal. But the foods in America are not originally from the United States. Hamburgers are from Germany. And French fries are actually from Belgium, not from France. Fries are popular all over the world in fast food chains, and they are served with hamburgers. Fries with ketchup are popular combination, too.

7. French fries is American typical meal.

yes

no

8. Hamburgers are from United State.

yes

no

9. French fries are from Belgium.

yes

no

10. French Fries are serve with ketchup.

yes

no

