- IV. Read the chronicle about the Mexican Independence Day and choose the correct answer from the drop down menu to  the questions.

Mexican Independence

Late on the night of September 15th, 1810, a priest named Father Miguel Hidalgo y Costilla started a revolution against Spanish rule. First, he rang the bell of his church in Dolores, Hidalgo. A crowd gathered and he stood on the steps of the church and told them to fight for liberty. The next day, the rebels declared independence from Spain. Mexico finally defeated Spain in 1821.
