- ☐ He / she might not know how to use the internet.
- ☐ He / she could be a model.
- ☐ He / she could be German or Scandinavian.
- ☐ He / she may not have a job.
- ☐ He / she may be a millionaire.
- ☐ His / her hair must be dyed.
- ☐ He / she must be retired .
- ☐ He / she can't be a business person.

Find out about the three people.

Dominic McVey, born in 1985, is a British entrepreneur from London, who set up a business at the age of 13 importing micro-scooters from the United States. He was a millionaire by the age of 15. His business interests now include website publishing and fashion.

Mira Sorvino is an American actress of Italian descent. She won an Oscar as best supporting actress in 1995 for her role in Woody Allen's Mighty Aphrodite. Before becoming an actress she studied Chinese at Harvard University, where she graduated magna cum laude (with great honour).

Olga Rutterschmidt, an 80-year-old California woman, and her friend Helen Golay were convicted in 2008 of murdering two homeless men. They committed the murders to collect millions of dollars from the men's life insurance policies.

modals of deduction: might, can't, must might / may (when you think something is possibly true)

3.44

Tony's phone is switched off. He might be on the plane now, or just boarding.

Laura might not like that skirt. It's not really her style.

I don't know where Kate is.

She may be at work or at the gym.

I'm surprised that Ted isn't here. He may not know that the meeting is today.

can't (when you are sure something is impossible / not true) 3.45

Nigel can't earn much money in his job. He's still living with his parents.
That woman can't be Jack's wife. Jack's wife has dark hair.

must (when you are sure something is true)

3.46

The neighbours must be out. There aren't any lights on in the house.
Your sister must have a lot of money if she drives a Porsche.

- We often use might / may, can't, or must to say how sure or certain we are about something (based on the information we have).

- We don't use can instead of might / may. NOT He can be on the plane now.

- In this context the opposite of must is can't.

The neighbours must be out. There aren't any lights on in the house. /
The neighbours can't be out. All the lights are on in the house. NOT
The neighbours mustn't be out.

- We can use could instead of might in positive sentences.

Jack could (or might) be at the party- I'm not sure.

- We often use be + gerund after might / must / can't.

They must be having a party - the music is very loud.
