FIRST & SECOND CONDITIONAL

1. Peter, if you _____ carefully to the teachers, you _____ better grades, but you never do that!
2. If we _____ respectful with our classmates, we _____ valued in class.
3. Peter, if you _____ from your mistakes, you _____.
4. If we _____ our best, we _____ _____ much more!
5. Our teacher always says that if we _____ our hand to speak, we _____ her attention.
6. If we _____ class rules, we _____ how to behave correctly.
7. Unless we _____ these basic class rules, we _____ a warning from Miss Ortiz.

First or Second?

1. If I _____ (be) you, I'd tell your mum about the broken vase.
2. If you _____ (not/ behave) so badly, your mum wouldn't ground you.
3. Kate will probably accept your invitation if you _____ (call) her today.
4. I _____(not/tell) anyone about the broken vase if I were Peter.
5. Unless you _____ (promise) me not to tell anyone, I won't share this information with you.
6. As long as you _____ (help) me with my Geography homework, I'll help you write your essay.
7. Providing that James _____ (send) me an invitation, I won't go to his exhibition.
8. If you _____(not/be) so forgetful, you would always remember important dates.
9. If you _____(note down) important dates, you won't forget them.

Choose

1. Would you help me cook dinner if ….
- ☐ I ask you?
- ☐ I asked you?
- ☐ I did ask you?

2. Unless you read more in English…
- ☐ you wouldn't get enough vocabulary.
- ☐ you won't get enough vocabulary.
- ☐ you don't get enough vocabulary.

3. Miss Green will surely get annoyed…
- ☐ if Joe keep interrupting.
- ☐ if Joe keeps interrupting.
- ☐ unless Joe keeps interrupting.

4. Mark would be able to come with us…
- ☐ If he didn't get into trouble so easily.
- ☐ If he got into trouble so easily.
- ☐ If he wouldn't get into trouble so easily.

5. I'd like English grammar…
- ☐ If it wasn't easier.
- ☐ If it were easier.
- ☐ If it would be easier.

LIVEWORKSHEETS