HANDOUT B: LISTEN & COMPLETE

Leena: I'm Leena, and I'm from Jordan. Whenever I get a coin, I save it for my (1)_____.

Every night, I put my coins in a big jar, just like my dad. When the jar is full, I sort coins and take them to the (2)_____. The people in the bank count the coins and put them in the bank for me.

Those coins are going to help me (3)_____ for college. I want to go to the University of Jordan in Amman when I'm older. Every cent helps!

Davi: I'm Davi from Brazil, and I use my coins to (4)_____ people. I save them up for a long time, then I give them away! My teacher liked this idea, so we have a coin drive at my school. In just (5)_____ weeks, our class collected $54.86. Our teacher gave the money to the (6)_____ in Sao Paolo, and we have a thank-you letter from them! I'm really happy that our coins made a difference! Now it's time to start saving more coins! You can do it, too!
