Grammar: Compound Sentences: and, but, or

Use with Student Edition pages 334–335.

Review the compound sentences using and, but, and or below.

The boys went to the park, and they played a game of baseball.
The boys wanted to play baseball, but it was raining.
They could play baseball, or they could play a game of soccer.

Use the connecting words and, but, or or to combine the sentences. Write the new sentence.

1. Mary went shopping. She bought a new dress.
   Mary went shopping, and she bought a new dress.

2. Jake wants to be a doctor. He doesn't like to study.

3. The man walked into the store. He asked for a sandwich.

4. You can buy it in the store. You can buy it online.

5. She wants to take a trip to China. She wants to visit Shanghai.

6. He's very busy with work. He still has time for his kids.

7. We can go by train. We can go by bus.