Mrs Spence: So, you've applied to do a teaching course here.

Jack: Yes, 1_____.

Mrs Spence: I'd like you to tell me, first of all, why you want to be a teacher.

Jack: OK. Well, I've always loved explaining things and helping people. I'm not looking for an easy job - I like 2_____! I also want to work with young people.

Mrs Spence: Why is it important to do sport at school, do you think?

Jack: OK. Well, 3_____, we all know it's important for our health to keep physically fit. 4_____, physical exercise is good for our mental well-being and self-esteem. And 5_____, playing sport teaches young people important life lessons.

Mrs Spence: Where does your passion for sport come from?

Jack: Hmm, let me think. It's difficult to choose one thing 6_____ ... I grew up around sport. My mum was a really good athlete, actually.

Mrs Spence: Oh, yes?

Jack: We used to go and see her running marathons, which made a 7_____ me as a child. I suppose it's 8_____.

Mrs Spence: And how do you think teachers can encourage their students to enjoy sport?
