

Put the pictures in the correct order (1-6) to tell Oliver's story.

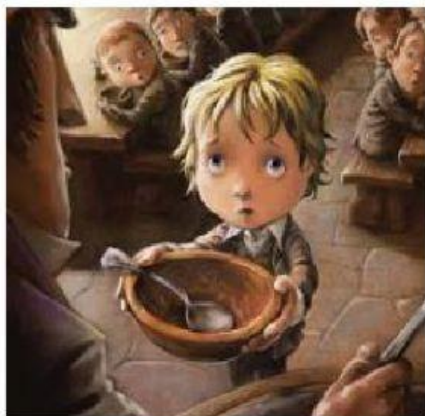

Mr. Bumble got very angry and sold Oliver to a coffin maker.

For his bad luck, Mr. Fagin was a famous thief, who forced him to be a pickpocket.

There, he met "the Artful Dodger", who offered to take him to Mr. Fagin who would help him.

Oliver Twist was a young orphan who lived in a workhouse. He had a hard life and very little to eat. One night he asked for some more food from Mr. Bumble.

While he was trying to steal a gentleman's wallet, the police caught him. Fortunately, Mr. Brownlow helped him, and he lived happily ever after.

He had a very difficult life there too ,so one night he escaped to London.