Adjectives with ending –ing and –ed

Change the adjectives by adding –ed or –ing.

1. The film was so _____ that we left it in the middle. (bore)

2. The students were _____ in examining the dead body in the mortuary. (interest)

3. It's _____ to be caught telling a lie. (embarrass)

4. The children are _____ about the holiday in Spain. (excite)

5. Last night the food we had in the restaurant was _____ . We had to send it back. (disgust)

6. The children ran round and round the playground until they were _____. (exhaust)

7. It was a cold, wet day and the children _____ (bore)

8. There was an _____ article on bilingualism in the newspaper yesterday. (interest)

9. It was so _____ to hear that the project was a great success. (satisfy)

10. It is really _____ when the train is late and there is no explanation. (annoy)

11. They were _____ about the result. (disappoint)

12. Mark was really _____ with me for leaving without him. (annoy)

13. He was _____ to discover that he had left no money. (shock)

14. He was _____ sick when he heard that there had been an accident. (worry)

15. I'm _____ by spiders. (terrify)