8 Classmates

The children in Mr Bath's class are reading stories this morning.
They're reading about a jungle and a zoo.
The monster in Mr Bath's classroom isn't reading this morning.
It's painting suns and stars on Anna's shoe!

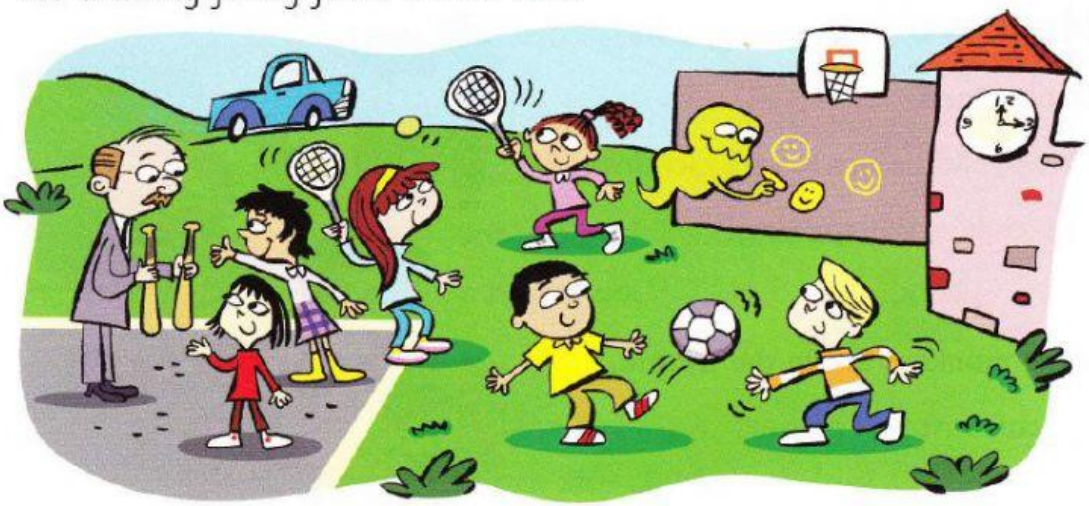

The children in Mr Bath's class are having their lunch now.
They're eating fish and chips and peas and bread.
The monster from Mr Bath's classroom isn't having its lunch now.
It's throwing paper planes at Sam and Fred!

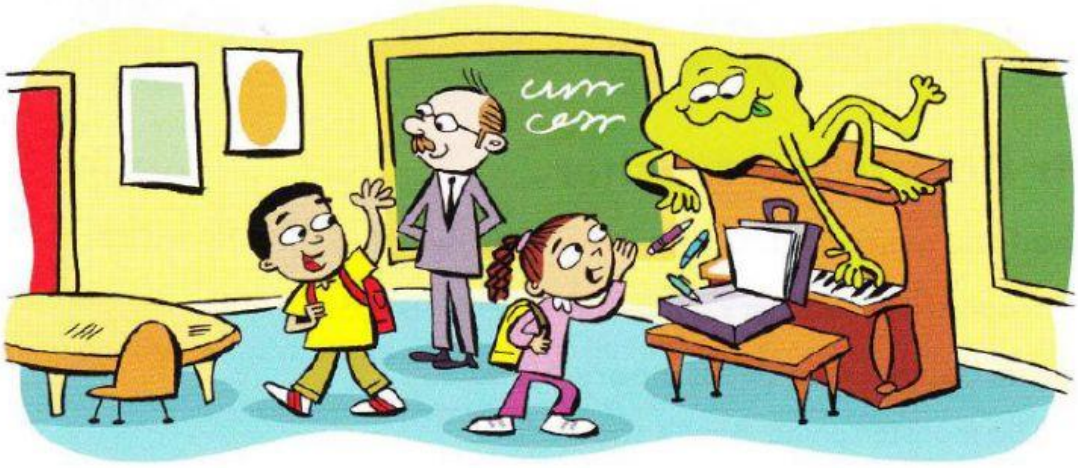

LIVEWORKSHEETS

The children in Mr Bath's class are doing lots of sports now.
They're playing soccer, tennis or baseball.
The monster from Mr Bath's classroom isn't doing sport now.
It's drawing funny faces on the wall!

The children in Mr Bath's class are going home now.
They're getting their bags
and games and books and pens.
The monster in Mr Bath's classroom isn't going home now.
It lives behind the door of classroom 10!

Mr Bath can't see the monster. But the children in his class can!
They whisper, 'Now, BE GOOD!' and wave goodbye.
But the monster isn't listening. It's playing the piano!
They love their naughty classmate! So do I!

LIVEWORKSHEETS

8 Classmates

A New words for you!

Draw lines.

These children are Anna's classmates.

One child is whispering!

This is a star.

Some monkeys live in the jungle.

We can write on paper.

That girl's naughty! Look!

B Our classroom monster

What does the monster do in the story? Tick (✔) the boxes.

C Mr Bath is the teacher.

Read the sentences. Choose the right word.

Example: The teacher's name is Mr / ~~Mrs~~ Bath.

1 The children read about a park / jungle.

2 The monster paints Anna's shoe / face.

3 The children eat chicken / fish for their lunch.

4 The monster draws funny faces on a wall / book.

5 The monster lives behind / next to the classroom door.

6 The teacher can / can't see the monster.

7 The monster plays the guitar / piano.

LIVEWORKSHEETS