

Indefinite Pronouns

1. Everyone _____ you're supposed to visit a dentist twice a year. (know, knows)
2. Nobody _____ this in the same category as a visit to Disneyland. (put, puts)
3. Most of the dental offices nowadays _____ set up to calm the fears of nervous patients. (are, is)
4. Nothing _____ me too much about going to the dentist, except one thing. (bother, bothers)
5. Sooner or later, somebody in the office _____ around to the crucial question. (get, gets)
6. One of the hygienists _____ cheerfully, "So, how's the flossing going?" (ask, asks)
7. First of all, almost all of the dentist's hands _____ usually in my mouth at this moment. (is, are)
8. No one _____ to talk at a time like this. (want, wants)
9. The truth is that only some of my teeth _____ easy to slip floss between. (is, are)
10. _____ anyone have a perfect flossing record? (Do, Does)