10

Susanna and Bryan and their nine-year-old son, Simon, want to go camping in a traditional seaside town, away from too many people. Simon is very interested in history.

A Ashton

There is a small cinema and popular classical concerts are held every Saturday in the Town Hall. The East Coast long-distance path passes nearby.

B Hensham-on-Sea

Hensham is a town of narrow streets with little cottages and interesting shops. There are two steam railways, one of which goes to and from the beach. Hire a boat on the small lake or go for long walks through the pinewoods.

C Brightsea

Once a fishing town, Brightsea is now a yachting centre with the best sailing on the East Coast. There are excellent walks along the river which give naturalists the chance to study the birdlife in this area. Good campsite.

D Whitecliff

A popular seaside town with lots of outside activities for everyone. The beach is a mixture of sand and small stones and visitors here have the opportunity to try windsurfing. For the very keen, there are sailing courses all the year round at the Hillstowe Sailing Club.

This is one of Britain's most popular seaside towns. It has wide, sandy beaches and a prize-winning Marina Leisure Centre which offers a large variety of all-weather sports, including a new swimming pool. To: The Manager of Mezzo Mash Restaurant

Dear Sir,

Last Tuesday evening I went with two friends to your restaurant for my 18th birthday. I'd booked the table for eight o'clock and we arrived about ten minutes late, but that was not a problem. The waiter, who was very polite, showed us to our table and we studied the menu. I ordered a fish pie and my friends ordered some salads. However, after about fifteen minutes, the waiter informed us that there was no more fish pie. He apologised and suggested ordering something else. I looked at the menu again and decided to have the same as my friends – a salad.

When the food came, it was very good. After we'd finished, we decided to order some desserts. The waiter said that, unfortunately, it was too late. There wasn't enough time for us to order desserts. He said he was very sorry but our table was reserved by another group at nine thirty and we would have to leave.

We paid the bill and left feeling very disappointed. It spoilt my birthday. Nobody told us when we arrived that there was a time limit. It was very unsatisfactory and I doubt that we'll go to your restaurant again.

Yours faithfully,

Martin Cary
