

Nama :

No Presensi/Kelas :

The following dialog is for questions 1 and 2.

Saras : I can't use my laptop computer. Brother, do you think you can reboot it, please?

Bagas : I think so. I have done it before.

Saras : Thanks so much.

Bagas : No problem.

What is the relationship of the speakers?

- A. Siblings
- B. Classmates
- C. Playmates
- D. Neighbors

What is Saras's problem?

- A. Her laptop computer can't be turned on.
- B. She doesn't know how to use a laptop computer.
- C. She cannot repair Bagas' laptop computer.
- D. She would like to use Bagas's laptop computer.

Dinda : Alvin, are you free next Saturday afternoon?

Alvin : I am, I have no plan yet. Why?

Dinda : I have a surprise for you. Will you come to my house at 4 PM?

Alvin : A surprise for me? I'm curious. Sure, I'd love to come, but will you tell me what it is about?

Dinda : No, I won't. I hope you like my surprise.

Alvin : I see. By the way, are you willing to join my group?

Dinda : What kind of group?

Alvin : I have a study group named Sky High. There are ten members, who are our schoolmates, and we discuss English, math, and science. We study online together on the weekends.

Dinda : It sounds interesting. Yes, I'm willing to join. Please add my number.

Alvin : O.K.

Who are talking in the dialog?

- A. Siblings
- B. Neighbors
- C. Schoolmates
- D. Playmates

What will Alvin do next Saturday afternoon?

- A. He will study together with Dinda.
- B. He and Dinda will join a study group called Sky High.
- C. He will prepare a surprise for Dinda.
- D. He will go to Dinda's house.

Why does Alvin accept Dinda's invitation?

- A. He has to study with Dinda.
- B. He's curious about the surprise Dinda has prepared for him.
- C. He joins the same study group as Dinda's.
- D. He has a plan, but he decides to go to Dinda's house.

Lina : I can't use the printer because the ink cartridge is empty. Can you replace it, please?

Sangga : Sorry, I cannot do it. I have never done it before, so I'm afraid of wrongly replacing it.

Lina : O.K. Let me ask father to do it.

What does Lina ask Sangga to do?

- A. To call their father
- B. To replace the printer
- C. To buy a new ink cartridge
- D. To replace the empty ink cartridge

Sangga says, "Sorry, I cannot do it."

What does he express?

- A. His capability
- B. His incapability
- C. His willingness
- D. His unwillingness

From the dialog we know that _____.

- A. Lina is going to print a document.
- B. Sangga is willing to replace the empty ink cartridge
- C. Sangga and Lina's father cannot repair the printer
- D. Lina forces Sangga to replace the ink cartridge

Ara : You know what? I have to make a 2-act drama script for my Indonesian assignment in three days, Brother. I don't think I can do it.

Putu : Let me ask you. Have you tried to do it?

Ara : No, I haven't. I can't think of an idea fast.

Putu : Please listen to me. You should not lose your self confidence.

Ara : I don't lose self confidence, but I know my limit.

Putu : Don't say that. Motivate yourself that you can pass over your limit. I know you can do it. You just need some references.

Ara : Thanks for your concern, but ...

Putu : No more argument. Let's watch my play performances. I hope you can get an idea from that.

Ara : Thanks for always supporting me, Bro.

Who are talking in the dialog?

- A. Daughter and father
- B. Two close friends
- C. Sister and brother
- D. Student and teacher

What is the topic of the dialog?

- A. Stating physical limitation
 - B. Motivating someone
 - C. Losing self confidence
 - D. Composing a script in three days
- Ara says, "I don't think I can do it."

What does the sentence express?

- A. Suggestion
- B. Incapability
- C. Unwillingness
- D. Dissatisfaction

From the dialog we can conclude that _____.

- A. Putu will show how to write a drama script effectively
- B. Ara believes that she only needs some references
- C. Putu is sure that Ara is able to finish the assignment
- D. Ara has to forget her ambition to be a good script writer

Arka : Kirana, will you fetch me a plate from the kitchen, please?

Kirana: Sorry. I have to leave now.

Arka : Wait! I just need your help for a few seconds.

Kirana: Sorry, I'm already late. Bye, Arka.

Arka : Bye.

Where do you think the dialog probably takes place?

- A. At home
- B. At school
- C. On the street
- D. In a laboratory

Kirana says, "Sorry, I have to leave now."

What does she express?

- A. Her uncertainty to help Arka
- B. Her intention to help Arka
- C. Her unwillingness to help Arka
- D. Her incapability to help Arka

From the dialog we know that _____.

- A. Kirana has no time to help Arka
- B. Arka will leave the house immediately
- C. Kirana and Arka will work together
- D. Arka is busy recently

Arrange the jumbled words to form a sequential sentence.

is willing to - homework - at - check - busy -

1 2 3 4 5

Aunt Dewi - my - she - although - physics -

6 7 8 9 10

the moment - is

11 12

- A. 6-12-5-3-11-9-8-1-4-7-2-10
- B. 6-1-4-7-10-2-9-8-12-5-3-11
- C. 6-11-7-10-2-5-1-9-8-12-3-4
- D. 6-1-3-12-5-4-7-10-2-9-8-11

Serena : Why do you need an egg beater, Bagas?

Bagas : I'm going to learn to make a pound cake.

Billa : Do you think you _____ do it?

Irwan : I think so. That's why, I need to practice.

Billa : Let me help you then.

Irwan : Thanks.

The suitable word to complete the dialog is _____.

- A. will
- B. have
- C. should
- D. can

Agung: Look! That man is in trouble! It seems his car is overheated. I think he needs help.

Rinto : _____

Agung: Sure. Let's do it.

Rinto : O.K.

The suitable expression to complete the dialog is _____.

- A. He should have checked his car.
- B. Does he not understand his car's condition?
- C. Are you willing to help him push the car aside?
- D. Let's tell the man to call the police soon.

Winda : I need a person who is willing to represent me in the photography club's meeting tomorrow afternoon. I have to attend another meeting with the principal.

Adit : (19) _____.

Winda : I think everyone will agree. Thanks, Adit.

Adit : No big deal.

Winda : By the way, can you prepare all the documents you need for the meeting?

Adit : Sure. Leave it to me. (20) _____.

Winda : Thank you very much.

Adit : You're welcome.

- A. I will go if the club's members agree
 - B. We can attend the meeting together
 - C. I know what I have to do in the meeting
 - D. I can explain what the meeting agenda is
-
- A. Let me contact you later
 - B. I will use the room
 - C. You should attend the meeting
 - D. I can handle it