Choose the correct answer.

This is an infection in the middle ear caused by the bacteria and viruses.

Ear infection Swimmer's ear Cerumen Impaction

It refers to prolonged exposure to the sun that caused damages to the skin.

Sunburn Calluses Blisters

These are rough, thickened skin that develops because of constant and repeated pressure or friction.

Sunburn Calluses Blisters

It is the shedding of dead skin cell from the scalp.

Calluses Blisters Dandruff

It is the sideways curvature of the spine

Kyphosis Scoliosis Lordosis

This occurs as a result of tooth decay.

Cavity Halitosis Gingivitis

This is an unpleasant smell of the mouth caused from food particles and poor oral hygiene.

Cavity Halitosis Gingivitis

Scoliosis is the sideways curving of the spine.

TRUE

FALSE

Malocclusion is a gum disease.

TRUE

FALSE

Cerumen Impaction refers to the build-up of layers of earwax within the ear canal.

TRUE

LIVEWORKSHEETS