Name: _____

Reading Comprehension: Making Predictions

Look at each picture. Choose the sentence that tells what will happen next.

	a. The girl will go out for a walk. b. The girl will eat the pizza. c. The girl will do her homework.
	a. The boy will throw the ball. b. The boy will hit the ball. c. The boy will kick the ball.

Tommy promises to help rake leaves at Miss Gail's house. He rakes a huge pile near the gate. Tommy hears a loud bark. He sees a big dog running toward the pile. The dog leaps into the air. It is heading straight for the pile. What happens next?

a. The pile blows away before the dog lands.
b. The dog scatters the pile.
c. The dog jumps over the pile

Lenny is playing outside in the summer sun. He is sweating because it is hot. A Popsicle will help him cool down. Lenny picks a large blue Popsicle. He sits on the porch to eat it, but his friend Chris comes to play. Lenny sets down his Popsicle to check out Chris's new ball. What will happen next?

a. Lenny forgets about being hot.
b. The popsicle stays frozen.
c. The popsicle melts.

Daisy is cleaning her room. She finds an old toy under her bed. She stops cleaning her room so she can play with it. When she finishes, she looks at the clock. Mom will check on her in ten minutes, and she will expect Daisy's room to be clean. What happens?

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS