1) Imagina que estas en una ciudad que no conoces donde no hablan español ¿Cómo irías al supermercado? ¿O al banco? ¿O el parque? ¿Cómo pedirías una direccione en ingles? Eso es lo que veremos hoy: asking for and giving directions (pedir y dar direcciones).

- Look at the following video about giving directions.

-Put the correct name under the directions signs (escribe el nombre bajo las señales de transito):

2) Now look at these texts. Follow the directions in the map ¿Where are they going? (mira estos textos. Sigue las direcciones y resuelve a donde van estas personas)

Tim: Thank you!!

Man: You're welcome!

Tim: Sorry, do you know where is the?

It's the Police Station.
- Turn left and go straight. Turn right at Lincon Street. Go straight and turn right. Go straight on River Street. It's near the Cinema and the Chemist's. What place is this?

Important!

Cuando pedimos indicaciones usamos expresiones como: "Excuse me (disculpe)"; "Sorry (perdon)."

Y preguntamos de la siguiente forma: "Do you know where is the? (Sabe dónde está el?)" ; "Where is the? (¿Dónde está el.....?)."

Cuando damos la información tenemos que:

- Usar expresiones como: "Yes, of course (Si, por supuesto)"; "Yes, sure (Si, claro)"
- Dar imperativos, es decir, ordenes. Por eso no usamos sujeto en la oración.
