Read about these children and their homes.

Arnold lives in a villa in Chiang Mai, Thailand. His house is made of concrete and it has a tiled roof. It has windows made of glass. There is a large garden where his mother grows fruit trees.

Aziyah lives in a wooden stilt house in Kampong Ayer in Brunei. Aziya's house has a zinc roof. It has eight glass windows. Aziyah's mother would like to move to Bandar so that she could have a garden.

Jie Jie lives in Hong Kong. Her home does not stay in one place. It is a boat made of wood with cloth sails. This kind of boat is called a junk. It does not have windows.

Hugh lives in a terraced house in Italy. His house is made of bricks and the roof is made of tiles. When Hugh looks out of his bedroom window he can see his garden.

Shiela lives in Mongolia. Her family has a large tent which they move to other places when the weather changes. The tent is made of cloth. It has an entrance, but no windows. Shiela's home does not have a garden so her mother has to buy vegetables from the market.
