- I. Read the poem below and answer the questions.

Playing at the Park
Zachary Keith

Here we are at a nice park,
We play since it's not yet dark.
My friend and I want to slide,
We run and clap as we glide.

A blue bird up the tree, it stays,
The sun glows, the wind blows,
As we watch the doves fly,
To one another, we say good-bye.
