

Lesson 9: Using Pronouns Correctly

The nominative case

Write the sentences again. Choose the correct form of the pronoun in parentheses

1. (He, Him) is a careful writer.
2. (They, Them) were the first ones on the scene.
3. Mark and (me, I) made a decision.
4. (Us, We) planned the surprise party.

The objective case

Write the sentences again. Choose the correct form of the pronoun in parentheses.

1. Rose is walking toward Tim and (they, them).
2. Lana sent Arturo and (he, him) invitations.
3. The manager hired Keisha and (her, she).
4. Please keep this secret between you and (me, I).

Lesson 9: Using Pronouns Correctly

The possessive case

Write the sentences again. Choose the correct form of the pronoun in parentheses.

1. (My, Mine) is by the door.
2. Shelley is proud of (her, hers) little brother.
3. Compared with (their, theirs), (our, ours) bus is new.
4. The dog wagged (it's, its) tail happily.