

Name: _____
Class: _____

8.2 Modal verbs: have to/don't have to, mustn't

1 Choose the correct option in the sentences.

- 0 In class, you have to / mustn't listen to the teacher.
- 1 In school, you have to / mustn't run in the corridors.
- 2 When you play sport, you have to / mustn't wear the correct clothes.
- 3 At break times, you have to / don't have to go outside if the weather is bad.
- 4 If you see the Head Teacher, you don't have to / mustn't do anything silly!
- 5 At lunchtime, you don't have to / have to play football.
- 6 In the school library, you have to / don't have to / mustn't make lots of noise.
- 7 In science experiments, you have to / don't have to / mustn't be careful with the chemicals and equipment.

17

2 Complete the text with have to, don't have to or mustn't.

In my country, you ⁰ have to take off your shoes before you go into someone's house. You

¹ _____ sit down until the person whose house you are visiting, your host, asks you to.

You can take a present to give to them if you want, but you ² _____. If you do take one, you ³ _____ give it to them before you go into the house, and you

⁴ _____ give them money – it's not polite!

In some countries, you ⁵ _____ eat all of the food on your plate, and, if you don't, it's rude. In my country, though, you

⁶ _____ do that. Meals there are often very long and you ⁷ _____ look like you are in a hurry to go. Instead of that, you ⁸ _____ take your time and enjoy the food and the conversation.

18

15