Time to study!

It was the night before the last exam. So far, Simon had done well, he thought. Of the six subjects he had (0) studying in this final year of school, this last one – physics – was the most difficult. He wanted to study medicine, (9) because he had to get high marks in his exams to (10) being accepted into university. Following (11) her physics teacher's advice, he had prepared for this exam by revising every day. 'You musn't (12) leaving it all till the last minute!' Mr New had warned. Simon cleared his desk, opened his folder and started looking through his notes (13) careful. They were neat, well-organised and (14) easily to read. After studying for a few (15) hour, Simon was ready for bed. That night, he dreamt (16) for becoming a world-famous doctor.
