There are other ways to use the words first and last. Read these sentences and answer the questions.

- At last– something different!

Sam said this to show that he has waited a long / short time for a new type of food.

- At first, Nina didn't want to have any Thai street food, but then she said that Sam's food smelled good, and she tried it and she loved it!

Choose one option:

1. Nina's first feelings about Thai street food were positive / negative.
2. We use but then to show that Nina changed / didn't change her mind about Thai street food.
3. Nina's final feelings about Thai street food were positive / negative.

LIVEWORKSHEETS