

The Soup Nazi

Jerry Seinfeld

George Costanza

Elaine Benes

Vocabulary

to crave to rave about to make someone's knees buckle
a caveat
to be stunned
to push one's luck

(Jerry, George and Elaine often hang out together with their friend Kramer. The scene begins at Jerry's apartment.)

1. What is Elaine craving for lunch?
2. Who recommended the soup stand to Jerry?
3. What is the caveat Jerry mentions concerning the soup stand owner?
4. What are the procedures of ordering food?
5. What can't you do when you order food?

6. Why doesn't George get any soup?

7. The second time George comes back to the stand for soup, why does the owner say 'you 're pushing your luck little man?'

8. Who does Elaine think the owner looks like?

9. Why is Elaine banned from the soup place?

10. Why doesn't Jerry leave the soup place with his girlfriend ?