USED TO V1

- is always followed by a simple infinitive (to V1)
- it refers to a past activity which you don't do anymore
- it can never be used in any other tenses but the past simple

My grandpa is really old. And he isn't really happy about it.
He has so many good memories and often feels nostalgic.
For example, he .....(buy) cheap ice cream.
As a child, he .....(live) with his parents in the village.
He.....(not/live) in the city. But he admits it's much better to live in the city.

As a young adult, he could stay up all night long. He.....(go) on dates very often before he got married. He .....(be) such a handsome young man! He is retired now. He .....(work) for a big factory that .....(produce) trucks. Unfortunately, it's closed at the moment.
His health is getting worse now. He..... (not/have) a backache. He.....(do) boxing. In addition, he has to wear glasses. He ..... (not/wear) them when he was young.

LIVEWORKSHEETS