I. Match the parts of the sentences:

1. Fear is our emotional reaction to something that ...	a) strengthens a fear and keeps it strong.
2. Fear is a necessary human emotion because it ...	b) make them feel unsafe or unsure.
3. Fears may affect our mental and physical health because we ...	c) realise that they are irrational.
4. When we sense danger, the brain reacts instantly and ...	d) seems dangerous.
5. People fear things or situations that ...	e) such as loneliness and bullying.
6. Fears can cause some social problems ...	f) sends signals that activate the nervous system.
7. People shouldn't avoid scary situations because this only ...	g) warns the person to stay safe.
8. People can overcome fears if they ...	h) experience negative emotions.

II. Fill in the prepositions: at, by, of (3), in (2), with.

1. I'm afraid _____ spiders.
2. Pete was bitten _____ a snake.
3. My sister cannot get rid _____ her phobia.
4. Logophobia is fear _____ words.
5. Phobias affect people _____ an unpleasant way.
6. Dogs bark _____ people.
7. I'm a friend _____ Lisa and Greg.
8. Mary cannot go outside _____ the daylight.

