

MUSCULAR SYSTEM

The muscular system consists of all the muscles in the body. Muscles are made up of a special kind of elastic tissue that changes shape as you use them. They can get shorter or longer. Bones and muscles work together to make us move. There are many different kinds of muscles in our bodies (skeletal, cardiac, and smooth).

Write the correct answer. (use the notes above)

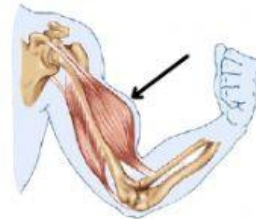

1. Muscles and bones work together to help us _____.

2. Muscles are made from a special type of _____.

3. When the muscle is long and thin the muscle is _____.

4. When the muscle is short and thick the muscle is _____.

5-6. Muscles can be _____ (controlled) or _____ (uncontrolled).

7. _____ are voluntary muscular tissues and are attached to the skeleton.

8. _____ are involuntary muscular tissues that make up your heart.

9. _____ are involuntary muscular tissues that make up the other internal organs.