

The New Government

Directions: Draw a line to correctly match in information on the right with the information on the left.

The Articles of Confederation was _____ pass laws

Under the Articles of Confederation, the only branch of national government was _____ ratify/approve

The legislative branch can _____ a legal document creating a partnership between the states

For the new government to take effect, all thirteen colonies had to _____ the Articles of Confederation.

strong

The states did not want a _____ central Government.

the legislative branch

Directions: Fill in the blanks with the correct information.

The new plan divided power between the _____ and the central government.

Who had more power, the states or the central government? _____