

N.G.E.C. Saint Francis of Assisi
Science Test
5th Grade

TRUE OR FALSE

Write a T if you think the sentence is correct or F if you think it is false

- 1- Endoscopy is a procedure used for the diagnosis of illnesses-----( )
- 2- The instrument used to perform an Endoscopy is a flexible rigid tube--( )
- 3- Laparoscopy is something that examines our heart-----( )
- 4- In an Ecography a machine uses high-frequency or ultrasound waves
To view internal organs-----( )
- 5- Dialysis is required when a person suffers from renal insufficiency ----( )
- 6- If the dialysis is not working a person automatically die or can have something like kidney replacement-----( )

Answer the following questions in your own words:

- 1- How dialysis works?
- 2- How often people with renal insufficiency have to perform a dialysis?
- 3- Which parts of our body can be transplanted?, name five.
- 4- If anybody has the same type of blood that means we can't donate organs for everybody?
that's true? Explain your answer