

Present Simple & Present Continuous

Present Simple

I play	He plays
Do I play?	Does he play?
I don't play	He doesn't play

Present Continuous (now)

I'm playing	He's playing
Am I playing?	Is he playing?
I'm not playing	He isn't playing

1. Choose the correct option:

- a) Susan cook/ cooks really well!
- b) My sister doesn't live / lives near the sea.
- c) I writing/ am writing a letter to my friend, George, in London.
- d) Children doesn't/ don't go out late at night.
- e) Does a rabbit eat/ eats carrots?
- f) My friends are play/ playing football in the park now.
- g) Do/ Does your teacher give you a lot of homework?
- h) We sometimes go/ goes/ going to the cinema on Mondays.
- i) Does your brother read/ reads a lot of books?
- j) Frank can't talk. He is sleep/ is sleeping now.
- k) Penny and Jane are rideing/ riding their bikes to school today.
- l) Elephants have/ has got big ears!
- m) Aunt Beth work/ works in a bank.
- n) - What are you do/ doing? - I'm baking cookies!
- o) Anthony is never late for class. He always comes/come early.
- p) Look at these dolphins! They are/do swimming really fast!
- q) The grey wolf doesn't live/ lives in Australia.
- r) Julia always tidies/ tidys her bedroom.
- s) Is/ Does the cat drinking water from its bowl?
- t) I don't/'m not always get up at 7 o'clock.
- u) Our mums isn't/ aren't at work now.