

★★ Complete the text about Summerhill school with the correct form of the verbs in brackets.

Summerhill school was opened in Suffolk, East England in 1921. It looks like a traditional school but, in many ways, it is very different. The students 1 (allow / decide) are allowed to decide how the school should be run and what the rules should be. The school 2 (let / do) _____ the students _____ whatever they want as long as they don't hurt others. The teachers 3 (not make / go) _____ the students _____ to lessons, the students 4 (allow / choose) _____ which classes they attend.

Students and teachers have meetings three times a week. The students 5 (allow / discuss) _____ their ideas and are equally as important as the teachers. There are some things that the students 6 (not / allow / do) _____ but the punishments for breaking the rules are also decided by both teachers and students. For example, they 7 (make / wait) _____ a student _____ until last before they can get their dinner or they 8 (not / let / leave) _____ a student _____ the school when everyone else 9 (allow / go) _____ out.

The British government does not always agree with the ideas at Summerhill and it has, in the past, tried to 10 (make / change) _____ the school _____ how it educates students. So far, the school has continued to do what it thinks is best.
