

Name: _____

Reading Comprehension

Making Judgments

Read the story. Ask yourself, "What is this story about?"

A tiny owl is looking for a home.
She can live where it is hot.
The owl flies to a cactus plant.
The cactus is as tall as a tree.
A hole is near the top.
The owl goes in.
The hole is just the right size.
The tiny owl can live inside this hole.
She can lay eggs inside, too.
The cactus will be a good home
for the tiny owl.

What is the story about?

- Ⓐ An owl lays eggs.
- Ⓑ An owl looks for a place to live.
- Ⓒ A cactus plant has a hole.

Which one tells about the owl?

- Ⓐ The owl is very big.
- Ⓑ The owl lives in a tree.
- Ⓒ The owl is very small.

Is the cactus a good place for the Owl to live? How do you know?

Read the story. Ask yourself, "What is this story about?"

The day was cold.
The day was icy.
"What a great day!" said Tamika.
She dressed in her warm clothes.
Then she and her dad ran to the pond.
The ice made the pond shine.
Tamika laced her skates.
Dad made sure that the ice was thick.
Then Tamika skated round and round.

The story is about _____.

- Ⓐ a very cold day
- Ⓑ an icy pond
- Ⓒ a girl skating on a pond

What is good about the cold and icy day?

- Ⓐ Tamika can play in the snow.
- Ⓑ Tamika can skate on the pond.
- Ⓒ Tamika can wear her warm clothes.

Would you enjoy a cold day? What would you on a cold day?
