IS THERE TOO MUCH MONEY IN SPORTS?
0	It is certainly true that in recent times money has become so more	SO.....
00	and more important in sport. I think that in some ways this is not	✓.....
1	a good thing. People seem to be involved themselves in some
2	sports just to make money and not because of they really care
3	about the sport. For example, some footballers get being paid an 4	enormous amount of money but sometimes they don't seem to 5	care about the team they are playing for, which this makes the
6	fans very angry. And sometimes it looks as if some sports are run
7	so that television companies, the people who own clubs and the 8	companies that provide sponsorship can make a big profit; the 9	public who watch these sports don't seem like to matter at all. On 10	the other hand, you could say that in these days sport has become a global business, and so it is not surprising that money plays such an important part in it.
