Present Simple Negative

The present simple is the tense used to express permanent situations or events that regularly repeat or always occur.

When expressed in its negative form, the verb denies something about the subject.

FORM

The present simple, in its negative form, has this structure:

Subject + do/does + not + verb + ...

Do/does: the third person singular changes from do to does;

Verb: the base form of the verb is the same (without any changes);

Irregular verb to be: I am not – you aren't – he isn't...

SUBJECT	DO/DOES + NOT	VERB	SHORT FORM
I	do not	work	don't
You	do not	work	don't
He	does not	work	doesn't
She	does not	work	doesn't
It	does not	work	doesn't

We	do not	work	don't
You	do not	work	don't
They	do not	work	don't
