

Compound Subjects and Verbs

Read each group of sentences. Rewrite each group of sentences as one sentence with a compound subject.

1. Elephants are my favorite animal. Tigers are also my favorite animal.
2. Alana and Daryl met up with Shaunna at the mall. Jose met up with Shaunna at the mall.
3. The football players ride a bus to the homecoming game. The cheerleaders and band members also ride a bus to the homecoming game.
4. Rain is a form of precipitation. Snow is a form of precipitation.
5. Fog covered the island. Mist covered the island.
6. Lorraine watched a scary movie on Sunday. Luis and Lorie watched a scary movie on Sunday.
7. The teachers greeted the parents for Open House. The principal and vice principal greeted the parents for Open House.

Read each group of sentences. Rewrite each group of sentences as one sentence with a compound verb.

8. Jana journals every morning. She also swims and meditates every morning.

9. A good student asks questions. A good student takes notes.

10. We played games and danced at the party. We ate pizza at the party.

11. Daisy's parents decorate their house for Christmas. Daisy's parents host a party for Christmas.

12. Alan plays basketball in the spring. Alan plays soccer in the summer. Alan plays football in the fall.

13. Clara dances and sings. Clara also writes her own music.

14. On Saturday, we will participate in a beach cleanup. On Saturday, we will have a barbeque.