

Research Skills Class: Review Quiz

1. What is the first thing you should do when you summarize a passage?
2. Should you include many examples and details in a summary?
3. Do you need to add your own ideas?
4. How long should a summary be?
5. What is plagiarism?
6. Is plagiarism the same as paraphrasing?

7. List 3 common consequences of plagiarism.

a. _____

b. _____

c. _____

8. List 2 ways you can avoid plagiarism.

a. _____

b. _____

9. List 2 common types of brainstorming.

a. _____

b. _____

10. Give examples of each type of research source.

a. Primary sources

i. _____

ii. _____

iii. _____

b. Secondary sources

i. _____

ii. _____

iii. _____

11. What is a SMART objective?

a. S= _____

b. M= _____

c. A= _____

d. R= _____

e. T= _____

12. Explain how a goal is different than an objective.

Use these words to fill in the blanks.

Scrutiny

Valid

Data

Evaluate

Research

Credible

13. You must evaluate your conclusions to see if they are _____.

14. Drawing valid conclusions involves carefully collecting _____.

15. Drawing valid conclusions involves making judgements that will withstand

_____.

16. You should evaluate your sources to see if the source is _____.

17. If your research sources do not agree with each other what should you do?

18. Describe a General-to-Specific pattern for presenting research.

19. Describe a Problem-Cause-Solution pattern for presenting research.

20. List 3 questions you could ask when evaluating the conclusions you arrived at after doing your research.

a. _____

b. _____

c. _____