

Match the imperative command with its consequence

Go to the shop	and we'll see what happens in a few years.
Finish that glass	and he won't be very happy.
Invite them	and you won't be able to when you're an adult.
Get out of bed the second you wake up	and your mum will be happy
Tell me everything you know	you might catch her.
Start smoking marijuana when you're a teenager	and you will see their new desert range
Tell him	and I'll give you some desert.
Take this experimental medicine	and you'll feel great all day.
Take the bin out	and we'll see if they come
Leave now,	and I'll get you another.
Finish your dinner	and I'll let you go.

Match the condition with its imperative

If they ask you if you want any,	take it for a walk every day.
If you start,	if you trust the government.
If they score	brush them every day.
If you make dinner now,	if you want.
If you tell your parents,	You'll have a problem
If you want to have a good time,	don't stop until you're finished.
If you have a dog,	don't come back.
If you like her,	speed up our style of play.
If you want it,
If you do that,	say that you don't
Expect the worst	go with them.
Tell them	tell her.
See what happens	take it.
If you want to have white teeth,	go there now.
If you want to see it,	clean the kitchen when you're finished.
