Read the text about Wayne's routine and write one word for each gap.

THE DAILY LIFE OF A BEIJING TEENAGER

5:30

The alarm clock rings. I have to get (1) _____. I go to the kitchen to fry myself an egg (2) _____ breakfast. My sister buys something from the market stalls (3) _____ the way to school so she can sleep longer.

6:00

I read something. Sometimes I need (4) _____ learn famous poems or texts (5) _____ other languages.

6:45

I set (6) _____ for school. I sometimes go to school (7) _____ bus. However, I normally go to school (8) _____ bicycle. In China, drivers have to be older (9) _____ 18 years old. As I'm 16, I can't drive to school (10) _____ teenagers in other countries.

7:20

We have to be in school (11) _____ least 20 minutes before lessons begin. It's a school rule. If you don't arrive (12) _____ time, you can expect punishment. If (13) _____ are often late, the teacher will talk (14) _____ your parents seriously.

7:40

Classes begin. Today we (15) _____ history, chemistry, geography, maths, English and sport, of (16) _____. We have sport (17) _____ day. Our school didn't (18) _____ to have a football pitch, basketball courts (19) _____ a running track, but now (20) _____ does.

12:10

All of (21) _____ eat in the school canteen. We have 30 minutes to eat our lunch and then we have a break (22) _____ 20 minutes. Sometimes I go to the library and sometimes I go outside to play table tennis.

13:00

Afternoon classes begin.

17:20

We finish school but we can't (23) _____ home; we have (24) _____ exam after class. School (25) _____ so hard!

18:00

I'm home again. That means I can have supper early. It takes (26) _____ 30 minutes to eat and then I have to (27) _____ my homework. We have (28) _____ of homework every day.

00:00

I'm never asleep (29) _____ midnight. I always wake up less (30) _____ six hours later.

Choose the five statements from A-H that are TRUE according to the information given in the text. Write the letters of the TRUE statements on the lines below in alphabetical order.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

A	Wayne makes his breakfast.
B	Wayne gets a lift to school by car.
C	Wayne is punished if he gets to school later than 07:20.
D	Wayne's school has some sports facilities.
E	At midday, none of the students go home for lunch.
F	Wayne leaves school at 17:20.
G	Wayne does his homework until it's time for dinner.
H	Wayne never sleeps more than six hours a night.

Adapted from: Cambridge Complete PET

LIVEWORKSHEETS