

5 Read.

writing corner

- We use a before singular countable nouns with a consonant sound.
e.g. a bag
- We use an before singular countable nouns with a vowel sound.
e.g. an umbrella but a university
- We use the before singular or plural nouns to talk about something / someone specific or unique.
e.g. The oranges in the bag are big.
The sky is blue.

6 Read and circle.

- 1 Have you got a / an umbrella? It's raining.
- 2 Look at a / the moon! It's red.
- 3 The / A blue shirt is cheap. Buy it!
- 4 Mary has got a / the new wallet. It's blue.
- 5 That's a / an old pizza restaurant. The / A new pizza restaurant is there!

7 Read and write a, an or the.

This is Sue and that's her house. Her house is on _____ (1) island. There is

_____ (2) kitchen, _____ (3)

living room, _____ (4) bathroom,

_____ (5) big bedroom and

_____ (6) small bedroom. _____ (7) kitchen is next to the living room. _____ (8) big bedroom is between _____ (9) small bedroom and _____ (10) bathroom.

