

Phrasal Verbs

join in take up
go on

put your name down
sign up
look forward to give up

set off
hold on

find out
go off
look after

| | | | |
|--|--|---|--|
| start doing something as part of a group | | stop doing something | |
| say that you are interested in doing a class or activity | | discover, get information about | |
| register for a class or activity | | stop liking | |
| start doing a new hobby | | take care of, be responsible for | |
| continue | | wait | |
| start on a journey | | be happy about something that will happen | |

I am really our trip to London next month! We will from home at 6am on Monday to be at the airport on time. My parents aren't coming. My grandparents will me!

Last month I decided to hiking. I for a hiking group based in Vic, because I wanted to with a group. I didn't want to be alone in the mountains! But before I could and pay, I was confined at home with Covid, and now I don't feel like going hiking anymore! I've the idea.

Wait! one second! I'm trying to what time my exam is tomorrow.

I don't want to doing basketball, because I don't like my coach any more. My parents said I can after Christmas, but I have to choose a different sport to do instead.