

Nasreddin and the pot

1. VOCABULARY OF THE STORY:

- To mock someone
- To laugh at someone
- To get mad
- To borrow something

2. READ THE FOLLOWING SENTENCES. CHOOSE TRUE OR FALSE.

1. Nasreddin's neighbour gave Nasreddin one pot for his first party.
2. After the first party, Nasreddin gave back one pot.
3. Nasreddin said, "your pot had a baby at my house"
4. After the second party, Nasreddin didn't give back the pots.
5. Nasreddin said, "your pots died at my house"
6. Nasreddin wanted to teach his neighbour English.

3. WHAT'S THE MEANING OF THE FOLLOWING IDIOM?

TO PULL SOMEONE'S LEG

THE MEANING IS...

WRITE A SENTENCE:

READING COMPREHENSION

ANGRY / POOR / KINDLY / BORROW / SILLY / INSTEAD OF / LESSON / NEIGHBOURS / MONEY

SUMMARY: NASHREDIN AND THE POT

Nasreddin was a poor but kind person but he helped other _____ people too. One day, when one of his _____ saw that he had given some _____ to a poor man, the neighbour laughed and mocked him...!. So, Nasreddin decided to teach his neighbour a lesson and asked him if he could _____ his pot. His neighbour very _____ let him borrow his pot. The next day, when Nasreddin gave back his neighbour's pot, he gave him two, _____ just one. His neighbour thought that Nashreddin was _____ because he only let him borrow one in the first place. Finally, when his neighbour asked for his pots back a second time, Nashreddin said that the pots had died. The neighbour got very _____. What he didn't know is that the "silly" Nashreddin was teaching him a _____!

➤ What was Nasreddin like? _____

➤ What did Nasreddin do when he needed a cooking pot?

➤ What did the neighbour think of Nasreddin?

➤ What did the neighbour do when Nasreddin asked for his pot again?

➤ What did Nasreddin say had happened to the neighbour's pots?

➤ The moral of the story is:

By @teacherlucia